THE LINCOLN FARM ASSOCIATION

SUBSCRIPTION LISTS IN ASTORIA FOR THIS PATRIOTIC MOVEMENT THAT IS ENDORSED BY MANY PROMINENT MEN.

B. F. Allen, commander of Post No. 14 Department of Oregon, G. A. R., has been requested by the officers of the Lincoln Farm Association to take up the matter of gaining subscriptions from individuals and fraternal organizations. The birthplace farm of Abraham Lincoln consisting of 110 acres, was purchased over two years ago by a private citizen who conceived the idea of developing the property into a Lincoln National Park as a fitting memorial of Lincoln's service. This public spirited citizen presented the farm and the old cabin to the Lincoln Farm Association which was incorporated for the purpose have contributed but still there is more work to do in erecting classic buildings and to provide for their care and for this reason further contributions are asked. The Board of Trustees is composed of members of the Cabinet, Governors of several states and prominent men in

A REAL WONDERLAND.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by Chas. Rogers druggist. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

It will soon be a settled proposition of law that every person who carries a deringer is deranged.

BADLY MIXED UP.

Abraham Brown, Winterson, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison; and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by Chas. Rogers druggist, 50.

Governor Hughes, of New York, may not win the presidential nomination next year, but he is getting a line of endorsements that must be very flattering to a new man in the political arena.

For that Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Kemp, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at Frank Hart the Leading Druggist, and see what a splendid medicine it is.

The scientists claim to have discovered lately that an atom is divisible. Mr. Hearst, therefore, may still cultivate the idea that his political prospects have a tangible remainder.

Tons of gold from Europe have been added to the stock of over $900,000,000, and the American mines are pouring in a fresh supply of nearly $100,000,000 a year. The panic, if there is such a thing, has a gold lining.

Nikola Tesla is preparing to send wireless messages to Mars. Before worrying over the response the public will want to be assured that the machine has no propensity to kick.

Danger in Asking Advice.

When you have a cough or cold do not ask some one what is good for it, as there is danger in taking some unknown preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, colds, and prevents pneumonia. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

Most of the money now supposed to be in hiding will come out next month when the Christmas shoppers enter upon their annual raid. Nothing can be concealed from Santa Claus.
